VOLUME XVI — THE CLEARFIELD PROGRESS, CLEARFIELD, PA., TUESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 14, 1922. — NUMBER [illegible]

THIS COUNTY SHOWS UP PROMINENTLY AS PRODUCER OF OATS

As wheat producting counties in Pennsylvania go, Clearfield County does not rank high according to the report of the State Agricultural Department recently analyzed by the Daily Express of DuBois.

The second grain table to be issued by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Agriculture has to do with the oats yield for 1922 and in this Clearfield County shows to a much better adavntage, ranking far above the average in the acre yield The county ranks 34th however in the number of acres given over to oats and 29th in the total number of bushels produced upon those acres.

The report shows that there were 1,16[illegible],569 acres given over to oats in Pennsylvania, and, of that number, Clearfield County supplied 17,564 acres. The average yield per acre in the state was even 34 bushels and Clearfield County growers raised an average of 35.4 bushels per acre, making it possible for this county to produce 621,766 bushels of the 39,478,[illegible] bushels produced in the state.

Berks County had the largest acreage 47,264, while Philadelphia County with 302 acres in oats, was the smallest producer. Berks County's production was 1,709,802 bushels while the yield in Philadelphia County was 10,619 bushels.

The acres and total bushels of near by counties were as follows:

County	Acres	Bush.
Cambria	14,892	533,155
Cl[illegible]ton	581	18,418
Center	23,222 759	359
Clarion	22,497	814,591
Elk	4,329	178,355
Indiana	24,098	788,005

ANGORA GOVERNM'T INCREASES DEMANDS AS ALLIES QUARREL

Paris, Nov. 14—Fresh demands are being made by the Angora government of Mustapha Kemel today as France and Great Britain's diplomats sought to agree on a united front to present at the Lazanne conference which will convene November 20th. The Turkish envoys have made it quite plain that they will quit the conference if the Allies make any preliminary plans or make any plans which will enable them to act on bloc and force peace terms on Turkey, British and France are still at odds over a policy and hope to come to an understanding which will include Belgium and Italy and enlist their aid as signatories. The Turks will insist on acceptance of their terms.

Orders are out commanding all the one million christians in Anatolia to evacuate within thirty days.

MRS. HALL WILL NOT BE PERMITTED TO SEE GRAND JURY

New Brunswick, N J., Nov. 14.—Mrs. Francis Hall, widow of the Rev Edwin Hall, slain rector will not be permitted to tell her story to any Grand Jury

Prosecutor Mott announced today that he would present the case to the Grand Jury next week and he believes he has sufficient evidence to get indictments of those he has under suspicion.

He announced also that Mrs. Hall could tell the Grand Jury nothing that would throw light on the case and her appearance would only delay the finding of indictments.

No more witnesses will be called prior to the Grand Jury sitting.

SHOOTS SISTER-IN-LAW IN JEALOUS RAGE

Monessen, Pa., Nov. 14.—Sam Niccoli shot and killed Miss Nellie Niccoli, a sister-in-law, after dragging her to his room with a rope about her neck. Miss Niccoli was only seventeen years of age and known as the town's beauty. Jealousy is ascribed as the motive.

PENNA. AND IOWA ARE IN POWERFUL POSITION AS RESULT OF DEFEAT OF OLD CONGRESSMEN IN OTHER STATES

No Doubt Many Of Those Who Put In New Men Of No Experience Will Realize The Folly Of Changing Men.

OHIO LOSES ALL PRESTIGE

How Pennsylvania and Iowa will gain in influence and power through keeping old experienced heads in Congress is vividly portrayed in the following dispatch from Washington as the smoke of battle clears away and those States which voted down their experienced representatives come to a sober realization of what they have done. Note how Pennsylvania gained.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Pennsylvania with seven will top off the States in the House committee heads in the new Congress unless the seniority rule is abrogated.

All told there are 60 of these committees, but some of them have little to do with important legislation. The seven important chairmanships Pennsylvania expects to have are banking, claims, foreign affairs, judiciary, naval, postoffice and printing, a gain of two. Iowa will have four—all big ones. They are ways and means, all powerful of itself; roads, agriculture and insular affairs, although Chairman Towner, of the latter, could relinquish control there to take education, lost to Ohio through the shift of representative Fess to the Senate.

In the present House with a solid delegation, Ohio has the chairmanship of only one big committee—education. Ohio members insist the old seniority system ought not keep them out of honors they claim as their due.

Some of the committees were shot to pieces. The committee on exposition and industrial arts looks as if a cyclone had struck it—eight of the ten Republicans being off after March 4.

INHUMAN MOTHER GIVES BAIL FOR COURT

Mrs. John Lamana, the Third Ward woman, who was arrested last Friday by Juvenile Officer Leavy on complaint of neighbors for inhumanly and brutally beating her little four-year-old daughter, gave $300 bail for her appearance at December criminal court.

The little girl is at the County Home and will be removed to the Children's Home this week. She is perfectly contented and says she never wants to go home or to see her mother again.

Enterprising business men in New Brunswick, N. J., have seen the advertising possibilities in the Hall murder. Here are specimens of signs erected for the double purpose of guiding morbid visitors and securing publicity.

More Earth Tremors Are Felt In District Where 1400 Died Last Week

Santiago, Chile, Nov. 14.—Several earth tremors were felt at Constitucion, Chile, last night at 8:30 o'clock, causing panic among the people o the district where upwards of 1400 lives were lost during the past week by earthquakes.

NOT SO SLOW AS A DRY LAW ENFORCER IN PENNSYLVANIA

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 13. (U. P.)—With twenty agents Federal Prohibition director John T Davis for Pennsylvania, has reported 1,356 individual cases of violation of the prohibition law in the Philadelphia district to the Department of Justice since he assumed office nine months ago.

Director Davis asusmed office last January. Since that time Volstead violators have numbered 44 in this district, 562 defendants held for court with 142 convictions and $24,300 fines collected.

The Philadelphia district includes counties of Berks, Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Lancaster, Lehigh, Montgomery, Northampton and Philadelphia, with a total population of more than 3,000,000.

RUMOR MONGER GETS $100 FINE AND WILL PUBLICLY APOLOGIZE

At last one of the birds who start terrible rumors, oftimes of a scandalous nature, has met his waterloo. He is John German, of St. Mary's. He started the rumor that "twins had been found in the Chestnut street park." The newspapers and the police ran down this rumor, to the end German admitted he started the story for fun. The Chief Burgess fined him the little matter of $100, in addition to which he was ordered to publish a public retraction which he did over his signature. German will no doubt turn his practical joking in another direction hereafter.

TWO MAJOR CHANGES SOUGHT IN THE ESCH-CUMMINS R. R. LAW

Washington, D. C., Nov. 14.—Railroad legislation planned for enactment at the special session of Congress called for November 20th, will be in the form of amendments to the Esch-Cummins law and prior to the convening of Congress the President will hold a conference with Senator Cummins, one of the authors of the act to frame the amendments. The amendments first to be offered are understood to be one defining the powers of the Railroad Labor Board and one providing for the removal of the board to Washington.

INSIST ON FARMER JURY TO TRY MEN INDICTED AT HERRIN

Marion, Ill., Nov. 14.—The State is insistent on an all-farmer jury to sit at the trial of those indicted for the Herrin massacre. This demand is slowing up the work of the trial Only three jurors have been accecpted and many farmers have been rejejcted because they work part time in the mines during which period they were affiliated with the union. However, if the State cannot get an all-farmer jury they will be content with six farmers and six of other occupations.

NOTED FRENCH FLYER KILLED

Paris, ..ov. 14.—M. Poiree, noted French aviator and his two mechanics dashed to their death today in their 1200 H. P. two engine candron plane in which they intended to attempt flight to Buenos Aires.

FATHER AND LITTLE GIRL ARE BADLY HURT AT BIGLER CROSSING

Reuben Smeal of Bigler and his little daughter were brought to the Clearfield Hospital last evening suffering rom injuries received when their automobile was struck by a passenger train at the New York Central grade crossing in the village of Bigler.

The accident occurred about 6:15 Mr. Smeal was driving into the village as the evening train from Williamsport was standing at the station. The train started as the automobile approached the crossing, but the driver of the car either didn't see the train at all or decided he could cross the track ahead of it. He failed in this as the engine struck the rear end of the car and dragged it along with the train.

Mr. Smeal had two children in the car with him and one of them, a little girl was thrown out of the car and was said to have been found lying under the engine when the train was brought to a halt, only the prompt stopping of his train by the cool-headed egineer averting a more serious accident.

The little girl had one leg broken and was considerably bruised and cut up, while Mr. Smeal was quite severly cut and bruised about the head and body. The other child escaped with minor bruises and was found crying on the floor of the automobile when search was made for her.

STABBED SERIOUSLY IN ARGUMENT OVER EUROPEAN POLITICS

European politics broke out in bitter intensity at the plan of the Osceola Silica and Fire Brick Company late Sunday night, when Harry Supko was upholding Polish policies in argument with Julius Kavlenski, a Russian and defender of the theory of government prevailing there. Both men were employes at the plant.

As a climax to the dispute Supko stabbed Kaylenski in the back with a knife. The injured man, who is 34 years old, was brough to the Cottage State hospital early yesterday morning. The wound is not necessarily serious and unless complications develop later he will likely quickly recover.

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA OPERATORS' ASSOCIATIONS BAND TOGETHER UNDER NAME OF CENTRAL PENNA. PRODUCERS

B. M. Clark Is President, Shillingford, Vice-Pres., O'Neil, Sec., Forsyth, Commissioner and Jones, Statistician.

WILL HAVE MORE FORCE

An amalgamation that will give this section one of the strongest organizations of bituminous coal operators in the country was affected at a joint conference in the Lincoln Trust building last week in which the directors of the Central Pennsylvania Coal Producers' association, the Central Coal Association and the Association of Bituminous Coal Operators of Central Pennsylvania participated.

The two first named organizations were merged under the name of the Association of Bituminous Coal Operators of Central Pennsylvania and all the members of the amalgamated bodies became members of the Central Pennsylvania Producers' association.

The Producers' association will handle traffic, car supply and collection matters, dissemination of statistics and various information of interest to the members, while all labor matters will be left for the Association of Bituminous Coal Operators to handle, the formation and enforcement of contracts and wage agreements between operators and both union and non union miners being its exclusive field.

The officers of the association remain the same under the terms of the amalgamation, as follows: President B. M. Clark, Indiana; vice president, G. Webb Shillingford, Clearfield; secretary treasurer, Charles O'Neill Altoona; commissioner, John C. Forsyth, Clearfield; statistician, W. A. Jones, Altoona.

The executive board of the Association of Bituminous operators which will deal with the United Mine Workers in wage matters, will be composed of the following: B. M. Clark, Indiana; Rembrandt Peale, New York; J. R. Caseley and E. H. Robertson, DuBois; C. B Maxwell, Morrisdale; H B. Scott and J. William Wetter, Philipsburg; Thomas F. Kelley, Coalport; G. Webb Shillingford, Clearfield J. S. Sommerville, Robertsdale; William Lamont, Elmora; J. A. Boucher, Beaverdale; Harry Boulton, Clearfield; S T. Brown, Indiana, and M. J. Bracken, Johnstown.

The board of the Producers' association is as follows: Tyrone group, J W. Wetter; Clearfield group, E. H. Sommerville; South Fork group, M.

MUSICAL MEMORIAL TO MISSES HAMES AND PLETCHER WAS GIVEN LAST NIGHT

The second meeting of the Musical Club was held at Thayer's Auditorium last night at 7:30. After a short business meeting a musical program was presented in memory of Miss Martha Belle Hames and Miss Maude Pletcher. The first number "Novelletten" (Gade) a trio, violin, Clarinet and piano, by Mr. Schaefer, John Hames and Miss Anna Way, was one which had often been played with Miss Hames as accompanist. Katharine Yeaney, a pupil of Miss Hames played "olse Arabesque" (Lack) very well. The next tnumber was a reading by Miss Willa Lindgren a pupil of Miss Pletcher. Her selection was "Da Berta Prend." It was given very sympathetically and Miss Lindgren was forced to respond to an encore The next three numbers on the program were compositions of Miss Hames. The short piano pieces written for and dedicated to Miss Florence Hames, niece of Miss Hames and played by her were exceedingly well done. The unconsciousness of the small pianist made her numbers very enjoyable to her audience. The pieces were "Morning Song," "At School." "Playtime" "Night Song." The anthem "O Be Joyful in the Lord" which Miss Hames wrote [illegible]

NEW OFFICE OF THE COMMUNITY SERVICE ON LOCUST STREET

The new Community Service office on Locust street is now open for use. All scout meetings will be held there unless special arrangements are published. The following is the week's schedule as far as it is made up

Mrs. Chase, Troop 11, Tuesday 4 p. m
Miss Grace Butler, Troop 5, Wed 7:15
Miss Margaret Wilson, Troop 7, Wednesday, 7:30.
Miss Amelia Butler, Troop 6, Thursday 7:30.
Mrs. Geo Brett, Troop 10, Friday 3:30
Mrs. W. S. Bouton, Troop 3, Friday 7:30.

The remaining troop meetings will be listed shortly

The Community Service dramatics instructor arrived in Clearfield Monday morning and is putting the finishing touches on the Institute plans. Community Service supporters are asked to remember and spread these facts: 1. That the meeting with Mrs. Hanley, institute instructor at the High School last evening was a success. Whether or not all those who attend will be able to take all the splendid work of the institute, they will understand perfectly the value of what Community Service is offering and the exact plan of the course. If all who know this pass on the good word, it will surely come to the ears of all who wish and need the course. 2. That the institute is absolutely free to any number who care to enroll. 3. That the institute will close with a dramatic production which will use in some capacity all those who take the course. 4. That the official home of Clearfield Community Service is 218 Locust street and enrollment can be made there in person or by phone [illegible]. That, though the institute continues for three good weeks with full value in each session, all are more than welcome to drop in as they have opportunity, even though some may not feel able to pledge continuous attendance. There is every confidence that meeting Mrs. Hanley and attending one session will guarantee a big effort to come as often as possible.

Rev. H. W. McConnell of Punxsutawney is spending a few days in town.

Mrs. Charles Quinsle and daughter, Harriet have returned from Ocean City Shore, where they spent the summer end.

THE RICHEST MAN IN U. S.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 13. (United Press.)—Henry Ford, Detroit automobile manufacturer, is credited with being the richest man in the United States.

Ford keeps a bank balance of $200,000,000.

Ford admits he doesn't know how much he is worth—not within several millions. He is generally credited with being a billionaire.

Ford will make the current year, according to the best information $[illegible]. His taxes run into the millions.

Ford has made his vast fortune along the lines of peace—automobiles for pleasure or business; tractors for farm cultivation.

Ford differs from Sir Basil Zaraboff, Europe's richest man, in that Ford's money was made along paths of peace; Zaraboff's, those of war.

There is nothing mysterious about Henry Ford. In 1903, Ford admits he had nothing. Today the Ford Motor Company, ownership of which is entirely within the Ford family, could be capitalized at two billion and pay 8 per cent. on the capitalization, according to experts. Ford's daily income, when his factories are running full blast, is estimated at $500,000.

Contrasted with Zaraboff, Europe's man of mystery, the richest man in America shuns even appearance of mystery. Tall, slender, gray of hair and of eye, he has rather a neutral personality when in repose. He talks freely to reporters, encourages newspaper men to call on him, tells them his aims and how he makes his money. He prints his own paper, the "Dearborn Independent," to air views that no one else will print.

Lives the Simple Life.

Ford believes in the simple life. He has traveled little and doesn't think much of the little. He lives quietly with his family at Dearborn, Mich., close to his experimental laboratories, takes pride in his money, his auto, his tractor and his family.

Ford is not good deal like John D. Rockefeller in one trait—the desire to absolutely control the materials which go into his product and take the profit for himself. That is why Ford owns the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton R. R., a road which facilitates shipment of motor cars and coal from mines which he owns in Kentucky and West Virginia. He also controls the Imperial iron mine located at Ishpeming, Mich.

Ford's business ideals, as dictated by himself, are:

1. Disregard competition.
2. Think service before profit.
3. Buy material fairly, and manufacture with the smallest addition of cost.

In these three rules alone, Ford sees the key to success.

In spite of the keenness of his business intellect, Ford "has notions," as they say down in Michigan.

He has always held that the cause of war has "gold" which evil he claims can be rectified by issuing paper currency based upon the natural resources of the country.

In his effort to purchase Muscle Shoals from the government for the purpose of manufacturing nitrate, Ford repeatedly pointed out a possible way for the government to finance his plan by recommending that interest bearing notes to the extent of the required $40,000,000 be issued in "greenbacks," based upon the potential earning power of the plant.

Ford thinks history is "the bunk" and said so in his million dollar suit against the Chicago Tribune.

Ford has conducted a bitter campaign against the "international Jew," which seems to be largely a mythical figure centralizing greed of gold.

Attacks Made on Wall Street.

Ford within two years, has bitterly attacked Wall Street, which he has repeatedly charged with "fleecing an ignorant and defenseless public."

On the other hand, the enemies of Ford, and he has quite a few, say he concentrates his entire attention on the accumulation of gold and his bitterest criticisms of Wall Street came about the time he was temporarily pinched for cash and Wall Street wanted everything but Ford's shirt for security.

Ford doesn't believe in miscellaneous charity. You never see his name in the lists of big donors to public causes. They say in Detroit that he is not generally looked upon as good material for community "touches." His $6 minimum to Ford labor was regarded as both real charity and good business.

Ford aroused general interest when, in 1915, he sent the "peace ship" to Europe to "get the boys out of the trenches by Christmas." Of course he didn't get them out, but he did get a lot of advertising of one kind or another.

At home, Henry Ford is a pleasing, quiet personality, apparently frank and sincere and is a ready listener.

He seldom holidays and when he does, he enters into the sport with all his energy. His trips are usually taken with Thomas Edison, and when Burroughs, famous naturalist, was alive, these three made up a happy trio in holiday season.

Every year, like three school boys, Burroughs, Edison and Ford went camping in an old tent in the woods where they chopped wood, built their own fire and cooked their own food on the shore of some quiet lake.

At home, Henry Ford invariably retires at 9 p. m. or before, rising about 5 a. m. in the summer and at 6 or 7 in the winter.

"I never rise regularly," Ford said, "as I do not believe in rising before one is thoroughly rested and ready for the day's work."

When he reaches the Dearborn office, Ford sets in for a hard day's work just as he used to do in the early days of his career. He sets no task for his employes that he himself cannot accomplish and lives up to the letter of a slogan that pervades the very atmosphere in every Ford plant It is:

ICE CREAM TRUCK UPSETS

The Keystone Ice Cream Company's truck was upset and considerably damaged at Wallaceton this morning. The driver attempted to make the turn onto the Morrisdale road and cutting the corner too close one of the front wheels struck the New York Central track and the big car turned over. The driver, one of the Woods boys, stuck to the wheel and went over with the machine but came out unhurt.

MAIL BANDITS GRAB WRONG POUCH; MISS A $70,000 PAYROLL

Marion, Ill., Nov. 14.—An attempted mail robbery failed here today when bandits attempted to make away with the $70,000 pay roll of the Bush No. 9 Mine which was expected in on a train reaching here shortly before noon. On arrival of the train a bandit appeared from the rear of the mail coach and wrested a mail pouch from the surprised clerk and ran with it to a waiting automobile in which were two other men. They sped away, believing they had the treasure. A checking up showed, however, that the bandit had grabbed a pouch containing ordinary mail matter and the payroll reposed safely in another pouch.

LOCAL COUPLE WED

Walter E. Shettlemore and Miss Ruth Thompson, daughter of Watt H. Thompson of 424 Glenwood avenue, formerly of Curwensville, were married Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. C. Granger, in the Presbyterian church of the Covenant.—Williamsport Sun, of Saturday, Nov. 11th.

THE AMERICAN LEGION AND AUXILIARY HAVE PEPPY PARTY IN DIMELING HOTEL

Saturday evening two hundred members of the American Legion and the Auxiliary amused themselves at a card party, dance and entertainment held in the ball room of the Dimeling Hotel. Those who desired to dance, enjoyed the music of theSusquehanna Orchestra. There were fifteen tables set for cards, and these were nearly all filled. At the end of each dance there were songs, speeches, and other entertainments to please those who neither danced nor played cards. The smoking room was well filled with those who enjoyed the game of "African Golf."

Miss Jeanne Harris, accompanied by Miss Evavlyn Smith on the piano sang several songs which pleased the crowd. Victor Meredith, accompanied by Mrs. Gallaher on the piano was very loudly applauded after sing ing several popular songs. Edwin Howard, with his sister as accompanist on the piano, rendered several good selections on his flute. Mitchell Chase gave a short speech on the benefits to be derived from such a party and Mr. William Leitzinger gave an announcement relative to the Memorial services to be held in the Episcopal church, Sunday evening.

At ten thirty everybody adjourned to the main dining room of the hotel where sandwiches, ice cream and coffee were savevd. The party stopped at midnight and the sentimen, was that it was one of the best that had ever been held.

of her graduation from the Susquehanna College of Music and dedicated to the Choir of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church was sung by a double quartette from that choir Many of the singers had been in the choir when Miss Iiames served as organist. The anthem is beautiful and was sung with great feeling. The last number "Melodie" was written by Miss Iiames while she was at Sunny Rest Sanatorium. It was written for the organ but was orchestrated by Mr. Schaefer and played by a string quintette; violins, Mr. Schaefer, Mr. Joseph Malloy, Miss Eugenia Mitchell; clarinet, Mr. John Iiames; bass viol, Mr. H. C Thayer It had a melancholy strain which made more poignant to the audience the loss sustained in the death of Miss Iiames.

The concert of Grieg Music which was given at the first meeting of the Musical Club on October second should be mentioned at this time. Two numbers by a string orchestra "Heart Wounds", "The Last Spring" and "Peer Gynt Suite" were exceedingly well done. Miss Josephine McMurray gave the story of the Peer Gynt Suite which made it possible for the audience to follow the story through the music. The piano number by Miss Anna Way, "Norwegian Bridal Procession," and "To Spring" was given in her usual artistic style. The two vocal numbers "Solveig's Lied" by Mrs. Bruce Paterson and "I Love Thee" by a trio—Miss Madeline Porter, Mrs. Roy Confer and Mrs. Russell Williams, were both very enjoyable to the audience. The longest number on the program was a violin sonata played by William Hoover. It was exceedingly difficult but was played with great ease by Mr. Hoover and proved to all that he is a true artist.

WAS A BROKEN-DOWN WOMAN

Then I Began Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Medicines

Donaldsonville, La.—"I write with pleasure to praise your medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—which has done so much to restore my health. I was a broken-down woman until my husband brought me a bottle of your Vegetable Compound and one of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine. I had been having pains every month and at intervals between, was weak and seemed to be smothering at times, but in a week I felt like another woman. I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. It did me a lot of good too. I cannot praise your medicines too much and will be more than glad to recommend them to any woman who is suffering from female troubles. You may print my testimonial, as it is true."—Mrs. T. A. Landry, 612 Miss. St., Donaldsonville, La.

Note Mrs. Landry's words—"as it is true." Every letter recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is genuine. It is a statement telling the merits of these medicines just as the women in your own neighborhood tell each other about them. For fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has sold on merit

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How To Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more snuffling, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable. Relief is sure.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

"The personality of America has entirely disappeared behind a pair of vile horn-rimmed spectacles," declares Basil Macdonald Hastings, noted British playwright.

"All Americans in a London hotel," he asserts, "look exactly alike, and if a smudge-faced sheep should stroll in, a booking clerk would accept him as an American without a shadow of suspicion. The ambition of the latterday New Yorker is to look like a smudge-faced sheep.

"The campaign has even spread to England. Men of distinguished countenance, men of sporting aspect, men with the faces of creators are now adopting the American craze and if a halt is not called quickly all Englishmen will look alike.

"Given a somewhat similar build, any two men behind these mourning-border windscreens become as like as two peas. One trembles to think of the mistakes that will be made by wives and sweethearts and comptes up the dismay of a divorce judge the petitioner and co-respondent. One cannot but sympathize with the desire of the few to get away from themselves, but surely the many are prepared to put up with their faces in the cause of public convenience.

"That women should succumb to the fad seems hardly credible, but it is nevertheless true that at any fashionable dance you may see a dozen or so of the most elegant girls pirouetting in the most perfectly fashioned clothes, but with their pretty faces distorted by having fixed to their noses large sheets of glass surrounded by coarse strips from the back of the tortoise.

"One's anger is naturally provoked. A pretty girl's face is not entirely her own, but was presented to her by Providence so that she might bring delight into sorrowful places."

The New York American's financial expert says every morning in Wall Street brings intimations of other stock dividends either declared or under consideration.

What started this Wall street fashion.

Apparently, it was at one time feared that Congress was getting ready to impose and exact a heavy tax on undistributed surpluses. So the shrewd gentlemen who watch over the finances of corporations conceived the idea of "distributing" surpluses by "raying" them out to stockholders in the form of additional amounts of stock.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon came out with a flatfooted denial that the Government proposed to take action such as was rumored.

But that hasn't checked the stock dividend fashion. It is raging as merrily as ever.

To get the most out of life, you must enjoy it.

The rules are simple
The reward is priceless

THE whole scheme of progress is based on the desire for enjoyment. But without health, you cannot enjoy life.

If your nerves are irritated and weakened by the effects of coffee or tea drinking, you cannot have good health. If you can't sleep nights, and you suffer from headaches, and are generally depressed, stop coffee and tea. Drink delicious Postum instead, and see if you don't feel better.

Postum is a pure cereal drink that satisfies the most exacting taste for a refreshing hot beverage.

Order Postum from your grocer today. Give this delicious beverage a fair trial, and like thousands of others you will never go back to coffee or tea again.

Postum is sold by your grocer in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling fully twenty minutes.

DRINKING ENOUGH SAFE MILK?

Possibly you are drinking what you think is enough milk for the ordinary person but we stop to ask you whether you are drinking enough SAFE milk?

There's as much difference between ordinary milk and SAFE milk as there is between day and night—the one holds a myriad of possibilities and the other holds nothing but absolute purity and freedoom from the millions of germs that might lurk in milk that has not gone through the pasteurization process.

Drink lots of milk but be sure that it's safe milk.

By Carrier 12 cents per Week Payable to Carrier

Entered in Port Office at Clearfield, Pa., as second class mail matter.

The per capita consumption of potatoes in this country is 3.2 bushels annually. The estimated crop this year is 443,000,000 bushels, or somewhat in excess of our bushels per capita. A prominent New York paper which was fighting the present tariff law some weeks ago was very much upset because of the duty on potatoes reported by the committee, 35 cents a hundred pounds, saying: "On a million bushels of potatoes consumed a day 35 cents a bushel runs up to a neat total of $350,000, or $127,750,000 annually as a tariff charge on the American people." The duty eventually laid was 50 cents a hundred pounds, or about 30 cents a bushel, which, according to this newspaper's way of thinking, would mean a charge of $109,000,000 as the charge on the American people. But this was assuming, of course, that the price of every bushel of potatoes would be controlled and that the controllers would add the 30 cents to the price.

Now it is hardly probable that the American people this year will increase their consumption of the succulent spud by 30 per cent in order to balance up with the over-production. It is almost an economic certainty that the law of supply and demand will get to work and reduce the price of potatoes below that of lean years. But the duty of 30 cents per bushel imposed will tend to restrict importations of potatoes so that the American growers will not suffer the grave slump in price which would otherwise attend a market flooded with both the domestic and the foreign potatoes. It is thus seen how fallacious are these repeated assertions of the opponents of protection that the duties are added to the prices paid by consumers, and what a Brobdignagian falsehood is contained in the Democratic statement that the tariff law adds $4,000,000,000 to the cost of living of the American consumer, for the principle that applies to potatoes applies to other products of American farm and mill.

President Harding's call for an extraordinary session of Congress to convene November 20th, for consideration of the administration's merchant marine program to the end that definite legislative action may be taken, will be received with gratification by all who have followed the development of the shipping problem to its present critical stage.

With the convening of the extra session the burden of solving this problem will shift from executive to legislative shoulders. The President has done his part by working out a constructive plan for the establishment and maintenance of a merchant marine adequate to America's commercial and military needs, and by submitting it to Congress with his earnest recommendation for positive action—and has done it well. It now remains for Congress to say whether or not the obvious need is to be met.

This is no subject for partisanship. There is no place for prejudice in its consideration. The question goes beyond party lines and reaches the heart of national need. America has already learned to its cost the folly of denying funds for maintenance of a merchant marine sufficient to meet the nation's commercial requirements and thus furnishing it with a secondary defense in time of war. While America's experience in the World War taught this grim lesson thoroughly the value of this teaching may be lost by delay in applying it. With nations, as with individuals, when experience grows stale, its lesson is apt to be forgotten.

Opponents of the administration's merchant marine program have sought to condemn it by characterizing it as a "subsidy." But it is not a subsidy in the sense that it means the promotion of special interests at the expense of the nation at large. For surely the maintenance of shipping to the end that foreign trade may be developed and to the end that adequate protection may be available, should war befall, would be meeting the universal national need.

Congress should discard petty politics in dealing with this subject and handle it in the straightforward manner that patriotic statemenship urges and national necessity dictates. Let it approach the matter directly and solve it as a clear-cut business proposition—which it is.

Does the nation's best interest urge the expansion of foreign trade? Does national defense require the establishment and maintenance of safeguarding merchant fleets? These two questions answer themselves in the affirmative. The affirmative makes unescapable the conclusion that it is to the nation's best interest to meet commercial and defensive needs in the best way—and the only practical way—that has so far been suggested.

SPRAGUE CONTINUES TO SPRAG WORK OF MOONSHINE SELLERS

Prohibition officers John Quinn and Mike Musin, under the jurisdiction of Group Head Sprage at Punxsutawney, for the week ending November 11, captured seven stills. Some were in operation at the time of seizure and they destroyed 500 gallons of mash and confiscated a large quantity of moonshine.

They also arrested a man who sold moonshine to two boys, aged 15 and 17 years. One of the boys went blind and the other is in a serious condition. The father reported the case the man was arrested and he confessed to the selling and where he secured the liquor. As the result the officers arrested Italian Frank at Rochester Mills within two hours together with thirty gallons of liquor and a still in operation. They also found a loaded revover and two barrels of mash. The two men were jailed.

On Monday, November 6, Office Quinn seized a truckload of high power beer at Indiana as it was being hauled away from the Indiana brewery to be delivered to hotels and lodges. The beer was taken to the postoffice, stored and samples sent for analysis by a government chemist.

SURPRISE PARTY AT EAST END

VACCINATION IS INDIRECTLY UPHELD BY HIGHEST COURT

Washington, D. C. Nov. 13—Compulsory Vaccination regulations were indirectly upheld by the United States Supreme Court today, when a suit for $10,000 was dismissed.

The suit was entered in the name of Rosalyn Zucht, a San Antonio girl who has been expelled from school following the refusal of her parents to have her vaccinated.

Physicians who have been opposed to compulsory vaccination or vaccination in any form were greatly interested in the case as they claimed that it would establish an interesting precedent.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no ambition. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from the live poisons and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel are gentle in their action yet thorough and sure. They bring about that clear, fresh feeling which all good health enjoys by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

The latest fashion news from France stresses the importance of the collar. Their early season offerings—the V-shaped and the deep Bertha collars illustrated have been enthusiastically accepted in America and are in the height of fashion now. Now comes the news that the high collar and the Victorian choker are due to return. As yet they have been adopted only on a few dresses and winter wraps.

THE TEXAS HOSPITAL PLAN

State Department Places Work First on List—Financing the Responsibility of All Units.

"The department of Texas places hospital work first and considers it a privilege to do everything possible in this service," writes Miss Ada Mayo Maddox, secretary of the department of Texas. Her report of the hospital work which has been done in Texas during the past year bears out the statement.

Mrs. Edward C. Murray.

A state hospital fund was instituted May 28, 1921. The first check which came into headquarters was from Santa Anna, a unit on saying that it had not yet received its charter. The Wichita Falls auxiliary, known as "Ma Burdick's unit," was among the first to contribute. Since then approximately $6,500 has been deposited in the hospital fund; four Legion posts having sent in, without solicitation, about $900 of the amount. One post held a goat-eating contest to raise funds and others sent in the receipts of their poppy sales.

The object of the state fund is to make the financing of the hospital work the responsibility of all units, not limited to the ones nearest the hospitals. The State hospital committee, a chairman elected by the state convention and three members from each unit situated near a hospital for ex-service men, handles the money that comes in. The chairman directs the work, instructs her committee, approves statements and vouchers, prepares bulletins and does an enormous amount of work among the boys themselves. Mrs. David M. Duller of Houston served faithfully in that capacity last year, and Mrs. J. Ward McKee, also of Houston, is the active chairman.

The report says: "Mrs. Murray's messages to the units in the hospital bulletins and her vision in the hospital work has inspired the Texas units to accomplish all this. It was her idea, also, that the units adopt patients and break the monotony of days in the hospital wards by writing to them and sending little gifts. Greatest help is given to men without compensation, but men with compensation who need cheering are adopted also."

Mrs. Edward Clinton Murray of Houston is president of the department of Texas, and is also one of the national vice presidents of the American Legion Auxiliary. She was one of the first organizers of the auxiliary in Texas and was elected to the state presidency when the organization was formed in San Antonio in December, 1920. Under her direction many units have been formed whose purpose at present is to establish a unit for each of the 201 Legion posts in Texas. Two of her policies are justice for the disabled soldiers and discouragement of memorials which are not of some living good to the men.

The department of Texas was first to contribute to the national hospital fund.

LEGION MEN FOUND DEAD

Thomas S. Bloodworth.

Thomas Stuart Bloodworth disappeared from his home in Natchez, Miss., September 13, and members of the American Legion post, the Herbert J. Remoudet post No. 4, are seeking news concerning him. It is feared he may have met with foul play. Bloodworth is twenty-three years old, 5 feet 6½ inches in height, weighs 140 pounds, is fair complexioned, has dark brown hair and black eyes. When he disappeared he wore an O.D. army shirt and corduroy trousers. He is married and has a nine-months-old child.

Any information concerning him should be sent to W. A. Geisenberger, commander Herbert J. Remoudet post No. 4, Natchez, Miss.

Legion Hotel in London.

London (England) members of the American Legion—there are American Legion posts in virtually every country—have opened a big hotel, where veterans of the World war are finding a homelike place to stay. Though the London post has only 138 members, the hotel project was launched successfully and, known as the American Legion hotel, already has gathered an excellent patronage. The hotel has rooms, lounge, dancing and entertainment parlors, etc., and furnishes the post with offices a meeting place and entertainment facilities.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Health Officer Weaver handed the writer the following health conditions of the borough, so far as the various contagious diseases are concerned. He reports to date 18 cases of scarlet fever; 18 cases of chicken pox; 1 case diphtheria; 3 cases of mumps and 1 case of typhoid fever. It is almost useless to warn parents to keep a strict watch over sanitary conditions, and, as a rule, many parents never attempt to "lock the stable until the horse is stolen." There are many nooks and corners in this borough which are unsanitary, and there will never be a better opportunity than at present for a general cleanup of all places where rubbish, ashes, etc., have been allowed to accumulate. Parent, watch your step, as the next quarantine card may be tacked on your door.

Miss Maud Costetta and Mrs. Richard Houton, both of Brockwayville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sloppy over Sunday.

Rev. Max Lantz, accompanied by three fellow travelers, from Altoona, arrived in Curwensville yesterday afternoon. The party left Altoona at 8 o'clock a. m. for this point, but had hard luck on the way, having to stop two or three times on account of breakdowns. After an hour in town the party captured John Kelly to use as a guide, and struck out for the mountains where they expect to put in the balance of the week hunting birds and rabbits. The parson would be pleased to take a crack at a bear if one should happen to double-cross him in a rabbit chase.

Ed. Peters, one of the foremen at Crescent brick plant, is able to be on his legs again after a week's fight with a case of lagrippe.

Coach Black of the C. H. S. football squad went to Youngstown, O., Saturday night and played in a Sunday game in that city. Black is rather nifty at the game and his services are always in demand when it comes down to real football.

Mrs. Wash Hess died at Grampian last Friday morning about six o'clock Her age was about 60 years. Her funeral was held on Saturday. Interment was in Friends cemetery.

Mrs. B. F. Farley has gone to Akron, Ohio, for a visit with her son and daughter. After spending some time in that busy city, she will go to Ashland, some sixty miles southeast of Akron, and spend a week or two with Mr. Farley's brother, John Farley and his family. She will be absent about one month.

Mrs. Mary J. Long, wife of the late Philip Long, died at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Charlie Shade West Decatur, Saturday, November 11th, aged 83 years, 7 months and 2? days. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon, interment being made in the Bloomington cemetery She was the mother of William Peoples, of this place. Deceased first husband died some 53 years ago.

Miss Ruth Graham, who has been residing in Portland, Oregon, for several years, has returned to Pennsylvania and is now visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Apgar Bloom, on corner of Thompson and George streets.

Jack Lytle of Clearfield was a visitor in Curwensville yesterday afternoon. He looked around for old land marks and failed to find them. It was the first intimation that he had that the old Draucker House was gone and a building of the past. "My gracious," said he, "how things have changed since I used to make weekly trips to the town."

The members of the American Legion, acting upon a suggestion made by the Progress scribe some few weeks ago in his Curwensville letter went over to Irvin Park the latter part of last week and housed all the moveable property, such as tables benches, sliding board, etc., so that by next season the articles will all be there and can again be put into proper place without much trouble Borough council had been asked several times to have this work but for some reason or other neglected the job. The ex-soldier boys certainly deserve credit for their thoughtfulness.

During the course of our extraordinarily long, useful and eventful life we have heard of white and drab elephants, and now the three story red building is allowed to stand as a red elephant. Thus we learn.

This is Cancer Week throughout the United States, and meetings are being held in almost every town. Curwensville correspondent to Progress was requested yesterday to announce that a meeting would be held in the High School building on Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock at which all middle-aged men are earnestly requested to be present. Dr. Weil, of Pittsburg, and others will be present and address the meeting. Last year 90 000 persons died in the U. S. from cancer, one to about every 10 inhabitants. One peculiarity about this disease is that as a rule it only attacks persons in middle life, and not the young.

An important meeting of the Athletic Association will be held in the High School building Thursday evenng. All members will be duly notified, and those that are interested in the High School football team are invited to attend as plans for the association for next year will be made.

CARS LOCK HORNS

Cliff Cowdrick's automobile and Banks Holmes' baggage wagon locked horns on North Second street this morning. The wagon came out second best in the fray, but nobody was hurt.

A Third Ward young man named Rauch ran his car into one of the Fullington jitney's upon South Second street last evening. The jitney lost a fender and had a couple of windows broken, while the Rauch car was also considerably damaged.

HON. B. F. CHASE LEAVES

Hon Benjamin F. Chase, U. S. Consul at Messina, Italy, left today for Roanoke, Va., where he expects to join his wife and will then go to Washington and return to his position at Messina within the coming two weeks.

It has been Mr. Chase's intention to resign from the Consular service and go into business at Roanoke, but Mrs. Chase, who is not in robust health, could not stand the climate at Roanoke, and Mr. Chase thereupon decided to remain in the Consular service.

WINBURNE

Rev. Benjamin Thomas of the Presbyterian church took as his text Sunday morning, Nov. 12, 1 Timothy 4:13, "Give heed to reading." It was a plea to give more study to the care and feeding of young minds. Primary instruction begins in the home. Much of the world's art story are devoted to children. The pastor dwelt particularly on the necessity of singing beautiful hymns to little children and the making use of the great wealth of Bible stories. The vast influence of the best pictures was also pointed out.

Children's Book Week is receiving attention by the people of Winburne and vicinity. By appointment of the Public Library Committee, a subcommittee consisting of Mrs. Paul J. Baer, assistant principal of the local high school, and Mrs. Benjamin Thomas, has been named to map out a program for a mass meeting of the mothers at the school building in Mr. Greene's room on Tuesday evening, 7:30 o'clock, Nov. 14. The following persons have been designated to speak: Mrs. J. G. Miller, secretary of the Library Committee; Mrs. W. P. Thorpe, Mrs. P. J. Baer, and Rev. Benj. Thomas, chairman of the Library Committee.

Mrs. David Hodge has charge of the music. The speaking and singing will be largely in the nature of a demonstration of what to read and sing to children and especially to tiny children. A quartette consisting of young men will sing and John Wilson will be present with several members of the orchestra. A most cordial invitation is hereby extended to the mothers of Winburne and vicinity to be present Tuesday evening.

SIDELIGHTS ON THE GAME AT BILLTOWN AS SEEN BY "DICK"

By DICK LEIPOLD

If any special coronation were made on the Clearfield squad, it would be unfair. Every lad that "got in" played as though his life depended on the outcome, and barring a couple of ball breaks, the team would have returned home a victor. The backfield, Howe, full; Brown and Hod Johnson halves, and Swede Johnson, quarter, played from whistle to whistle. This combination battered the Williamsport line for consistent gains, and also backed up the line well. Swede Johnson and Hody Johnson outpunted Mahaffey at all stages. Brown's passing was accurate and Howe put up his usual type of hard playing, both on defense and offense.

Then, the Clearfield line, except for one weakening in the second quarter when the down-river team broke up a Clearfield punt, showed an unusual amount of strength. Clearfield took the ball on downs more times than their opponents. Ken Barney and Bob Wilson, two 140 pound Sophomores, were fast in getting down the field under punts, and smashed most of the enemy's end runs.

Moore and Pierce at tackles played as all high school forwards would like to. They toiled unheralded from start to finish and will go down as two of the best tackles produced at the local school in years.

Betts and Ganoe started the game at guard, but injuries forced both men out. First it was Burly Betts, then "Bull" Ganoe. The loss of each was a blow to C. H. S., although Maines and Tiny Witherow played bang-up games when injected into the fray. Few teams possess a quartet of such reliable guards.

Capt. Witherow played his customary steady game at center, and also made good when called on to play safety man.

Ed Heintel, last year's captain, Tackle Schuster, 190-pound captain this fall, and Guard Bittle, formed a strong trio on the left side of Williamsport's line. Schuster's brother played for Penn State until a week ago, when declared ineligible.

Quarterback Mahaffey was the brains of the enemy's attack. His judgment was uncanny in passing. Sheriff and Good were also heavy tollers.

As the two final games on Clearfield high's schedule draw near, much interest is being aroused over the outcome of DuBois and Curwensville High's week-end clashes with other squads. These two teams appear on Clearfield's gridiron for consecutive games, the DuBois gridders invading Clearfield on the 25 inst., while the Curwensville squad will come down-river to play the Thanksgiving Day game on the [illegible] of November.

Both Teams Going Strong.

Curwensville and DuBois seem to be about on a par if the DuBois-Curwensville game's score of 14 to 7 in favor of the former tells anything. Last S[illegible] Curwensville High humbled [illegible] Bellefonte Hi, 25 to 0. [illegible] over Tyrone at Tyrons two weeks ago by a point, 8 to 7. DuBois High showed the way to Tyrone's squad, handing the main liners a 41 to 0 setback.

The fact that both machines scored easily, and yet kept their own goal line uncrossed, proves that all around development has been taking hold of these two Clearfield county squads. Coach Black of Curwensville and Coach Eddie Treadwell of DuBois are frank in admitting that they have been pointing for their clashes with the county seat school, so some stirring football is ahead for the local fans.

The private wire from the Williamsport football field to Clearfield was a great success. Play by play the local team's followers were told of the happenings down at the Lycoming county seat via a Magna Vox operated by Walt Flegal in Senator Betts' office in the Keystone Building. Down in Williamsport the city fans were impressed by Clearfield High's student interest in securing a leased line for such a lengthy talk.

Williamsport's coach is reported the "Sun" as stating that the Red and Black was the strongest all around eleven to play in Williamsport this season, and some tough teams have trotted out to oppose the Cherry and White. Clearfield scored more points than the combined scores of all the other varsity opponents.

Capt. Carl Mann's scrubs journeyed to Winburne, last Saturday and were given a 39 to 0 jolt by Cooper Township High. The local second stringers say that the smallest man on the township machine was a second "Tiny" Witherow, with the big fellows of the team outweighing Don (Fat) Thurston of the Clearfield Reserves.

It seems the township management advertised the game as "Clearfield High School" and many rural sport fans are crowing over their favorites' victory over Clearfield's varsity.

Wholesome Retribution.

"I hear they are going to close up the saloons in Crimson Gulch," "Yes," exclaimed Tarantula Tim. "The licker has been gettin' poorer every year an' us citizens is willin' to go without fur awhile fur the sake of punishin' the bartenders."

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

No man or woman who eats lots of meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Too much meat may form uric acid, which clogs the kidney pores so that they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood; then you get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleep lessness, bladder disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to help neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus often ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink, which everyone can take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby often preventing serious kidney complications.

The Formula for Eggs

Conkey's Buttermilk Laying Mash for eggs and Conkey's Scratch Grains for body maintenance and exercise—that is the Conkey way of feeding. Hens prefer scratch grains to mash if given a choice, but it is the mash and not the grains that makes the eggs. Arrange to feed so the hens will consume twice as much mash as grain by measure.

Conkey's
The Original
Buttermilk Laying Mash

Balanced egg-making ration just right in animal protein (needed for eggs) and low in fibre (indigestible waste matter). No mill sweepings, shell, alfalfa, ground hay or trashy filler. All nutritious feed—clean and sweet.

Conkey's contains wholesome meat scraps, granulated bone, grains ground to proper fineness, and fresh concentrated buttermilk. We use Semi-Solid Buttermilk only. Mixed with exacting care and scientific accuracy, it gets remarkable results in a perfectly natural way, without ruinous artificial stimulation. It is Nature's balanced egg-maker.

Insist on Conkey's—in Original Packages

For best results, feed all three Conkey Buttermilk Feeds—one each for Starting, Growing and Laying. Don't break the Chain of Conkey's Original Buttermilk Feeds. Ask for Conkey's and always get in Original Packages. (21) Big Poultry Book Free. Ask for it.

PURITY ABOVE PRICE

When the purchases are made for this store, there is always one thing that is asked above the other—"how good is it?" It isn't a matter of beating down the traveling salesman's price, but an insistence on the highest possible quality we can procure.

And yet, prices here are no higher than elsewhere.

THIS COUNTY SHOWS UP PROMINENTLY AS PRODUCER OF OATS

As wheat producting counties in Pennsylvania go, Clearfield County does not rank high according to the report of the State Agricultural Department recently analyzed by the Daily Express of DuBois.

The second grain table to be issued by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Agriculture has to do with the oats yield for 1922 and in this Clearfield County shows to a much better adavntage, ranking far above the average in the acre yield The county ranks 34th however in the number of acres given over to oats and 29th in the total number of bushels produced upon those acres.

The report shows that there were 1,16[illegible],569 acres given over to oats in Pennsylvania, and, of that number, Clearfield County supplied 17,564 acres. The average yield per acre in the state was even 34 bushels and Clearfield County growers raised an average of 35.4 bushels per acre, making it possible for this county to produce 621,766 bushels of the 39,478,[illegible] bushels produced in the state.

Berks County had the largest acreage 47,264, while Philadelphia County with 302 acres in oats, was the smallest producer. Berks County's production was 1,709,802 bushels while the yield in Philadelphia County was 10,619 bushels.

The acres and total bushels of near by counties were as follows:

County	Acres	Bush.

ANGORA GOVERNM'T INCREASES DEMANDS AS ALLIES QUARREL

Paris, Nov. 14—Fresh demands are being made by the Angora government of Mustapha Kemel today as France and Great Britain's diplomats sought to agree on a united front to present at the Lazanne conference which will convene November 20th. The Turkish envoys have made it quite plain that they will quit the conference if the Allies make any preliminary plans or make any plans which will enable them to act on bloc and force peace terms on Turkey, British and France are still at odds over a policy and hope to come to an understanding which will include Belgium and Italy and enlist their aid as signatories. The Turks will insist on acceptance of their terms.

MRS. HALL WILL NOT BE PERMITTED TO SEE GRAND JURY

New Brunswick, N J., Nov. 14.—Mrs. Francis Hall, widow of the Rev Edwin Hall, slain rector will not be permitted to tell her story to any Grand Jury

Prosecutor Mott announced today that he would present the case to the Grand Jury next week and he believes he has sufficient evidence to get indictments of those he has under suspicion.

He announced also that Mrs. Hall could tell the Grand Jury nothing that would throw light on the case and her appearance would only delay the finding of indictments.

No more witnesses will be called prior to the Grand Jury sitting.

SHOOTS SISTER-IN-LAW IN JEALOUS RAGE

Monessen, Pa., Nov. 14.—Sam Niccoli shot and killed Miss Nellie Niccoli, a sister-in-law, after dragging her to his room with a rope about her neck. Miss Niccoli was only seventeen years of age and known as the town's beauty. Jealousy is ascribed as the motive.

PENNA. AND IOWA ARE IN POWERFUL POSITION AS RESULT OF DEFEAT OF OLD CONGRESSMEN IN OTHER STATES

No Doubt Many Of Those Who Put In New Men Of No Experience Will Realize The Folly Of Changing Men.

OHIO LOSES ALL PRESTIGE

How Pennsylvania and Iowa will gain in influence and power through keeping old experienced heads in Congress is vividly portrayed in the following dispatch from Washington as the smoke of battle clears away and those States which voted down their experienced representatives come to a sober realization of what they have done. Note how Pennsylvania gained.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Pennsylvania with seven will top off the States in the House committee heads in the new Congress unless the seniority rule is abrogated.

All told there are 60 of these committees, but some of them have little to do with important legislation. The seven important chairmanships Pennsylvania expects to have are banking, claims, foreign affairs, judiciary, naval, postoffice and printing, a gain of two. Iowa will have four—all big ones. They are ways and means, all powerful of itself; roads, agriculture and insular affairs, although Chairman Towner, of the latter, could relinquish control there to take education, lost to Ohio through the shift of representative Fess to the Senate.

In the present House with a solid delegation, Ohio has the chairmanship of only one big committee—education. Ohio members insist the old seniority system ought not keep them out of honors they claim as their due.

Some of the committees were shot to pieces. The committee on exposition and industrial arts looks as if a cyclone had struck it—eight of the ten Republicans being off after March 4.

INHUMAN MOTHER GIVES BAIL FOR COURT

NOT SO SLOW AS A DRY LAW ENFORCER IN PENNSYLVANIA

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 13. (U. P.)—With twenty agents Federal Prohibition director John T Davis for Pennsylvania, has reported 1,356 individual cases of violation of the prohibition law in the Philadelphia district to the Department of Justice since he assumed office nine months ago.

Director Davis asusmed office last January. Since that time Volstead violators have numbered 44 in this district, 562 defendants held for court with 142 convictions and $24,300 fines collected.

The Philadelphia district includes counties of Berks, Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Lancaster, Lehigh, Montgomery, Northampton and Philadelphia, with a total population of more than 3,000,000.

RUMOR MONGER GETS $100 FINE AND WILL PUBLICLY APOLOGIZE

At last one of the birds who start terrible rumors, oftimes of a scandalous nature, has met his waterloo. He is John German, of St. Mary's. He started the rumor that "twins had been found in the Chestnut street park." The newspapers and the police ran down this rumor, to the end German admitted he started the story for fun. The Chief Burgess fined him the little matter of $100, in addition to which he was ordered to publish a public retraction which he did over his signature. German will no doubt turn his practical joking in another direction hereafter.

The amendments first to be offered are understood to be one defining the powers of the Railroad Labor Board and one providing for the removal of the board to Washington.

INSIST ON FARMER JURY TO TRY MEN INDICTED AT HERRIN

Marion, Ill., Nov. 14.—The State is insistent on an all-farmer jury to sit at the trial of those indicted for the Herrin massacre. This demand is slowing up the work of the trial Only three jurors have been accecpted and many farmers have been rejejcted because they work part time in the mines during which period they were affiliated with the union. However, if the State cannot get an all-farmer jury they will be content with six farmers and six of other occupations.

Reuben Smeal of Bigler and his little daughter were brought to the Clearfield Hospital last evening suffering rom injuries received when their automobile was struck by a passenger train at the New York Central grade crossing in the village of Bigler.

The accident occurred about 6:15 Mr. Smeal was driving into the village as the evening train from Williamsport was standing at the station. The train started as the automobile approached the crossing, but the driver of the car either didn't see the train at all or decided he could cross the track ahead of it. He failed in this as the engine struck the rear end of the car and dragged it along with the train.

Mr. Smeal had two children in the car with him and one of them, a little girl was thrown out of the car and was said to have been found lying under the engine when the train was brought to a halt, only the prompt stopping of his train by the cool-headed egineer averting a more serious accident.

The little girl had one leg broken and was considerably bruised and cut up, while Mr. Smeal was quite severly cut and bruised about the head and body. The other child escaped with minor bruises and was found crying on the floor of the automobile when search was made for her.

STABBED SERIOUSLY IN ARGUMENT OVER EUROPEAN POLITICS

European politics broke out in bitter intensity at the plan of the Osceola Silica and Fire Brick Company late Sunday night, when Harry Supko was upholding Polish policies in argument with Julius Kavlenski, a Russian and defender of the theory of government prevailing there. Both men were employes at the plant.

As a climax to the dispute Supko stabbed Kaylenski in the back with a knife. The injured man, who is 34 years old, was brough to the Cottage State hospital early yesterday morning. The wound is not necessarily serious and unless complications develop later he will likely quickly recover.

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA OPERATORS' ASSOCIATIONS BAND TOGETHER UNDER NAME OF CENTRAL PENNA. PRODUCERS

B. M. Clark Is President, Shillingford, Vice-Pres., O'Neil, Sec., Forsyth, Commissioner and Jones, Statistician.

WILL HAVE MORE FORCE

An amalgamation that will give this section one of the strongest organizations of bituminous coal operators in the country was affected at a joint conference in the Lincoln Trust building last week in which the directors of the Central Pennsylvania Coal Producers' association, the Central Coal Association and the Association of Bituminous Coal Operators of Central Pennsylvania participated.

The two first named organizations were merged under the name of the Association of Bituminous Coal Operators of Central Pennsylvania and all the members of the amalgamated bodies became members of the Central Pennsylvania Producers' association.

The Producers' association will handle traffic, car supply and collection matters, dissemination of statistics and various information of interest to the members, while all labor matters will be left for the Association of Bituminous Coal Operators to handle, the formation and enforcement of contracts and wage agreements between operators and both union and non union miners being its exclusive field.

The officers of the association remain the same under the terms of the amalgamation, as follows: President B. M. Clark, Indiana; vice president, G. Webb Shillingford, Clearfield; secretary treasurer, Charles O'Neill Altoona; commissioner, John C. Forsyth, Clearfield; statistician, W. A. Jones, Altoona.

The executive board of the Association of Bituminous operators which will deal with the United Mine Workers in wage matters, will be composed of the following: B. M. Clark, Indiana; Rembrandt Peale, New York; J. R. Caseley and E. H. Robertson, DuBois; C. B Maxwell, Morrisdale; H B. Scott and J. William Wetter, Philipsburg; Thomas F. Kelley, Coalport; G. Webb Shillingford, Clearfield J. S. Sommerville, Robertsdale; William Lamont, Elmora; J. A. Boucher, Beaverdale; Harry Boulton, Clearfield; S T. Brown, Indiana, and M. J. Bracken, Johnstown.

The board of the Producers' association is as follows: Tyrone group, J W. Wetter; Clearfield group, E. H. Sommerville; South Fork group, M.

MUSICAL MEMORIAL TO MISSES HAMES AND PLETCHER WAS GIVEN LAST NIGHT

The second meeting of the Musical Club was held at Thayer's Auditorium last night at 7:30. After a short business meeting a musical program was presented in memory of Miss Martha Belle Hames and Miss Maude Pletcher. The first number "Novelletten" (Gade) a trio, violin, Clarinet and piano, by Mr. Schaefer, John Hames and Miss Anna Way, was one which had often been played with Miss Hames as accompanist. Katharine Yeaney, a pupil of Miss Hames played "olse Arabesque" (Lack) very well. The next tnumber was a reading by Miss Willa Lindgren a pupil of Miss Pletcher. Her selection was "Da Berta Prend." It was given very sympathetically and Miss Lindgren was forced to respond to an encore The next three numbers on the program were compositions of Miss Hames. The short piano pieces written for and dedicated to Miss Florence Hames, niece of Miss Hames and played by her were exceedingly well done. The unconsciousness of the small pianist made her numbers very enjoyable to her audience. The pieces were "Morning Song," "At School." "Playtime" "Night Song." The anthem "O Be Joyful in the Lord" which Miss Hames wrote [illegible]

NEW OFFICE OF THE COMMUNITY SERVICE ON LOCUST STREET

The new Community Service office on Locust street is now open for use. All scout meetings will be held there unless special arrangements are published. The following is the week's schedule as far as it is made up

Mrs. Chase, Troop 11, Tuesday 4 p. m
Miss Grace Butler, Troop 5, Wed 7:15
Miss Margaret Wilson, Troop 7, Wednesday, 7:30.
Miss Amelia Butler, Troop 6, Thursday 7:30.
Mrs. Geo Brett, Troop 10, Friday 3:30
Mrs. W. S. Bouton, Troop 3, Friday 7:30.

The remaining troop meetings will be listed shortly

The Community Service dramatics instructor arrived in Clearfield Monday morning and is putting the finishing touches on the Institute plans. Community Service supporters are asked to remember and spread these facts: 1. That the meeting with Mrs. Hanley, institute instructor at the High School last evening was a success. Whether or not all those who attend will be able to take all the splendid work of the institute, they will understand perfectly the value of what Community Service is offering and the exact plan of the course. If all who know this pass on the good word, it will surely come to the ears of all who wish and need the course. 2. That the institute is absolutely free to any number who care to enroll. 3. That the institute will close with a dramatic production which will use in some capacity all those who take the course. 4. That the official home of Clearfield Community Service is 218 Locust street and enrollment can be made there in person or by phone [illegible]. That, though the Institute continues for three good weeks with full value in each session, all are more than welcome to drop in be they have opportunity, even though some may not feel able to pledge continuous attendance. There is every confidence that meeting Mrs. Hanley and attending one session will guarantee a big effort to come as often as possible.

Rev. H. W. McConnell of Penfield is spending a few days in town.

Mrs. Charles Quinsle and daughter Harriet have returned from Ocean City, where they spent the week end.

THE RICHEST MAN IN U. S.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 13. (United Press.)—Henry Ford, Detroit automobile manufacturer, is credited with being the richest man in the United States.

Ford keeps a bank balance of $200,000,000.

Ford admits he doesn't know how much he is worth—not within several millions. He is generally credited with being a billionaire.

Ford will make the current year, according to the best information $[illegible]. His taxes run into the millions.

Ford has made his vast fortune along the lines of peace—automobiles for pleasure or business; tractors for farm cultivation.

Ford differs from Sir Basil Zaraboff, Europe's richest man, in that Ford's money was made along paths of peace; Zaraboff's, those of war.

There is nothing mysterious about Henry Ford. In 1903, Ford admits he had nothing. Today the Ford Motor Company, ownership of which is entirely within the Ford family, could be capitalized at two billion and pay 8 per cent. on the capitalization, according to experts. Ford's daily income, when his factories are running full blast, is estimated at $500,000.

Contrasted with Zaraboff, Europe's man of mystery, the richest man in America shuns even appearance of mystery. Tall, slender, gray of hair and of eye, he has rather a neutral personality when in repose. He talks freely to reporters, encourages newspaper men to call on him, tells them his aims and how he makes his money. He prints his own paper, the "Dearborn Independent," to air views that no one else will print.

Lives the Simple Life.

Ford believes in the simple life. He has traveled little and doesn't think much of the little. He lives quietly with his family at Dearborn, Mich., close to his experimental laboratories, takes pride in his money, his auto, his tractor and his family.

Ford is not good deal like John D. Rockefeller in one trait—the desire to absolutely control the materials which go into his product and take the profit for himself. That is why Ford owns the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton R. R., a road which facilitates shipment of motor cars and coal from mines which he owns in Kentucky and West Virginia. He also controls the Imperial iron mine located at Ishpeming, Mich.

Ford's business ideals, as dictated by himself, are:

1. Disregard competition.
2. Think service before profit.
3. Buy material fairly, and manufacture with the smallest addition of cost.

In these three rules alone, Ford sees the key to success.

In spite of the keenness of his business intellect, Ford "has notions," as they say down in Michigan.

He has always held that the cause of war has "gold" which evil he claims can be rectified by issuing paper currency based upon the natural resources of the country.

In his effort to purchase Muscle Shoals from the government for the purpose of manufacturing nitrate, Ford repeatedly pointed out a possible way for the government to finance his plan by recommending that interest bearing notes to the extent of the required $40,000,000 be issued in "greenbacks," based upon the potential earning power of the plant.

Ford thinks history is "the bunk" and said so in his million dollar suit against the Chicago Tribune.

Ford has conducted a bitter campaign against the "international Jew," which seems to be largely a mythical figure centralizing greed of gold.

Attacks Made on Wall Street.

Ford within two years, has bitterly attacked Wall Street, which he has repeatedly charged with "fleecing an ignorant and defenseless public."

On the other hand, the enemies of Ford, and he has quite a few, say he concentrates his entire attention on the accumulation of gold and his bitterest criticisms of Wall Street came about the time he was temporarily pinched for cash and Wall Street wanted everything but Ford's shirt for security.

Ford doesn't believe in miscellaneous charity. You never see his name in the lists of big donors to public causes. They say in Detroit that he is not generally looked upon as good material for community "touches." His $6 minimum to Ford labor was regarded as both real charity and good business.

Ford aroused general interest when, in 1915, he sent the "peace ship" to Europe to "get the boys out of the trenches by Christmas." Of course he didn't get them out, but he did get a lot of advertising of one kind or another.

At home, Henry Ford is a pleasing, quiet personality, apparently frank and sincere and is a ready listener.

He seldom holidays and when he does, he enters into the sport with all his energy. His trips are usually taken with Thomas Edison, and when Burroughs, famous naturalist, was alive, these three made up a happy trio in holiday season.

Every year, like three school boys, Burroughs, Edison and Ford went camping in an old tent in the woods where they chopped wood, built their own fire and cooked their own food on the shore of some quiet lake.

At home, Henry Ford invariably retires at 9 p. m. or before, rising about 5 a. m. in the summer and at 6 or 7 in the winter.

"I never rise regularly," Ford said, "as I do not believe in rising before one is thoroughly rested and ready for the day's work."

When he reaches the Dearborn office, Ford sets in for a hard day's work just as he used to do in the early days of his career. He sets no task for his employes that he himself cannot accomplish and lives up to the letter of a slogan that pervades the very atmosphere in every Ford plant It is:

ICE CREAM TRUCK UPSETS

The Keystone Ice Cream Company's truck was upset and considerably damaged at Wallaceton this morning. The driver attempted to make the turn onto the Morrisdale road and cutting the corner too close one of the front wheels struck the New York Central track and the big car turned over. The driver, one of the Woods boys, stuck to the wheel and went over with the machine but came out unhurt.

MAIL BANDITS GRAB WRONG POUCH; MISS A $70,000 PAYROLL

Marion, Ill., Nov. 14.—An attempted mail robbery failed here today when bandits attempted to make away with the $70,000 pay roll of the Bush No. 9 Mine which was expected in on a train reaching here shortly before noon. On arrival of the train a bandit appeared from the rear of the mail coach and wrested a mail pouch from the surprised clerk and ran with it to a waiting automobile in which were two other men. They sped away, believing they had the treasure. A checking up showed, however, that the bandit had grabbed a pouch containing ordinary mail matter and the payroll reposed safely in another pouch.

LOCAL COUPLE WED

Walter E. Shettlemore and Miss Ruth Thompson, daughter of Watt H. Thompson of 424 Glenwood avenue, formerly of Curwensville, were married Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. C. Granger, in the Presbyterian church of the Covenant.—Williamsport Sun, of Saturday, Nov. 11th.

THE AMERICAN LEGION AND AUXILIARY HAVE PEPPY PARTY IN DIMELING HOTEL

Saturday evening two hundred members of the American Legion and the Auxiliary amused themselves at a card party, dance and entertainment held in the ball room of the Dimeling Hotel. Those who desired to dance, enjoyed the music of theSusquehanna Orchestra. There were fifteen tables set for cards, and these were nearly all filled. At the end of each dance there were songs, speeches, and other entertainments to please those who neither danced nor played cards. The smoking room was well filled with those who enjoyed the game of "African Golf."

Miss Jeanne Harris, accompanied by Miss Evavlyn Smith on the piano sang several songs which pleased the crowd. Victor Meredith, accompanied by Mrs. Gallaher on the piano was very loudly applauded after sing ing several popular songs. Edwin Howard, with his sister as accompanist on the piano, rendered several good selections on his flute. Mitchell Chase gave a short speech on the benefits to be derived from such a party and Mr. William Leitzinger gave an announcement relative to the Memorial services to be held in the Episcopal church, Sunday evening.

At ten thirty everybody adjourned to the main dining room of the hotel where sandwiches, ice cream and coffee were savevd. The party stopped at midnight and the sentimen, was that it was one of the best that had ever been held.

Musical Memorial

of her graduation from the Susquehanna College of Music and dedicated to the Choir of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church was sung by a double quartette from that choir Many of the singers had been in the choir when Miss Iiames served as organist. The anthem is beautiful and was sung with great feeling. The last number "Melodie" was written by Miss Iiames while she was at Sunny Rest Sanatorium. It was written for the organ but was orchestrated by Mr. Schaefer and played by a string quintette; violins, Mr. Schaefer, Mr. Joseph Malloy, Miss Eugenia Mitchell; clarinet, Mr. John Iiames; bass viol, Mr. H. C Thayer It had a melancholy strain which made more poignant to the audience the loss sustained in the death of Miss Iiames.

The concert of Grieg Music which was given at the first meeting of the Musical Club on October second should be mentioned at this time. Two numbers by a string orchestra "Heart Wounds", "The Last Spring" and "Peer Gynt Suite" were exceedingly well done. Miss Josephine McMurray gave the story of the Peer Gynt Suite which made it possible for the audience to follow the story through the music. The piano number by Miss Anna Way, "Norwegian Bridal Procession," and "To Spring" was given in her usual artistic style. The two vocal numbers "Solveig's Lied" by Mrs. Bruce Paterson and "I Love Thee" by a trio—Miss Madeline Porter, Mrs. Roy Confer and Mrs. Russell Williams, were both very enjoyable to the audience. The longest number on the program was a violin sonata played by William Hoover. It was exceedingly difficult but was played with great ease by Mr. Hoover and proved to all that he is a true artist.

WAS A BROKEN-DOWN WOMAN

Then I Began Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Medicines

Donaldsonville, La.—"I write with pleasure to praise your medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—which has done so much to restore my health. I was a broken-down woman until my husband brought me a bottle of your Vegetable Compound and one of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine. I had been having pains every month and at intervals between, was weak and seemed to be smothering at times, but in a week I felt like another woman. I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. It did me a lot of good too. I cannot praise your medicines too much and will be more than glad to recommend them to any woman who is suffering from female troubles. You may print my testimonial, as it is true."—Mrs. T. A. LANDRY, 612 Miss. St., Donaldsonville, La.

Note Mrs. Landry's words—"as it is true." Every letter recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is genuine. OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How To Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more snuffling, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable. Relief is sure.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

"The personality of America has entirely disappeared behind a pair of vile horn-rimmed spectacles," declares Basil Macdonald Hastings, noted British playwright.

"All Americans in a London hotel," he asserts, "look exactly alike, and if a smudge-faced sheep should stroll in, a booking clerk would accept him as an American without a shadow of suspicion. The ambition of the latterday New Yorker is to look like a smudge-faced sheep.

"The campaign has even spread to England. Men of distinguished countenance, men of sporting aspect, men with the faces of creators are now adopting the American craze and if a halt is not called quickly all Englishmen will look alike.

"Given a somewhat similar build, any two men behind these mourning-border windscreens become as like as two peas. One trembles to think of the mistakes that will be made by wives and sweethearts and comptes up the dismay of a divorce judge the petitioner and co-respondent. One cannot but sympathize with the desire of the few to get away from themselves, but surely the many are prepared to put up with their faces in the cause of public convenience.

"That women should succumb to the fad seems hardly credible, but it is nevertheless true that at any fashionable dance you may see a dozen or so of the most elegant girls pirouetting in the most perfectly fashioned clothes, but with their pretty faces distorted by having fixed to their noses large sheets of glass surrounded by coarse strips from the back of the tortoise.

"One's anger is naturally provoked. A pretty girl's face is not entirely her own, but was presented to her by Providence so that she might bring delight into sorrowful places."

The New York American's financial expert says every morning in Wall Street brings intimations of other stock dividends either declared or under consideration.

What started this Wall street fashion.

Apparently, it was at one time feared that Congress was getting ready to impose and exact a heavy tax on undistributed surpluses. So the shrewd gentlemen who watch over the finances of corporations conceived the idea of "distributing" surpluses by "raying" them out to stockholders in the form of additional amounts of stock.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon came out with a flatfooted denial that the Government proposed to take action such as was rumored.

But that hasn't checked the stock dividend fashion. It is raging as merrily as ever.

Entered in Port Office at Clearfield, Pa., as second class mail matter.

The per capita consumption of potatoes in this country is 3.2 bushels annually. The estimated crop this year is 443,000,000 bushels, or somewhat in excess of our bushels per capita. A prominent New York paper which was fighting the present tariff law some weeks ago was very much upset because of the duty on potatoes reported by the committee, 35 cents a hundred pounds, saying: "On a million bushels of potatoes consumed a day 35 cents a bushel runs up to a neat total of $350,000, or $127,750,000 annually as a tariff charge on the American people." The duty eventually laid was 50 cents a hundred pounds, or about 30 cents a bushel, which, according to this newspaper's way of thinking, would mean a charge of $109,000,000 as the charge on the American people. But this was assuming, of course, that the price of every bushel of potatoes would be controlled and that the controllers would add the 30 cents to the price.

Now it is hardly probable that the American people this year will increase their consumption of the succulent spud by 30 per cent in order to balance up with the over-production. It is almost an economic certainty that the law of supply and demand will get to work and reduce the price of potatoes below that of lean years. But the duty of 30 cents per bushel imposed will tend to restrict importations of potatoes so that the American growers will not suffer the grave slump in price which would otherwise attend a market flooded with both the domestic and the foreign potatoes. It is thus seen how fallacious are these repeated assertions of the opponents of protection that the duties are added to the prices paid by consumers, and what a Brobdignagian falsehood is contained in the Democratic statement that the tariff law adds $4,000,000,000 to the cost of living of the American consumer, for the principle that applies to potatoes applies to other products of American farm and mill.

President Harding's call for an extraordinary session of Congress to convene November 20th, for consideration of the administration's merchant marine program to the end that definite legislative action may be taken, will be received with gratification by all who have followed the development of the shipping problem to its present critical stage.

With the convening of the extra session the burden of solving this problem will shift from executive to legislative shoulders. The President has done his part by working out a constructive plan for the establishment and maintenance of a merchant marine adequate to America's commercial and military needs, and by submitting it to Congress with his earnest recommendation for positive action—and has done it well. It now remains for Congress to say whether or not the obvious need is to be met.

This is no subject for partisanship. There is no place for prejudice in its consideration. The question goes beyond party lines and reaches the heart of national need. America has already learned to its cost the folly of denying funds for maintenance of a merchant marine sufficient to meet the nation's commercial requirements and thus furnishing it with a secondary defense in time of war. While America's experience in the World War taught this grim lesson thoroughly the value of this teaching may be lost by delay in applying it. With nations, as with individuals, when experience grows stale, its lesson is apt to be forgotten.

Opponents of the administration's merchant marine program have sought to condemn it by characterizing it as a "subsidy." But it is not a subsidy in the sense that it means the promotion of special interests at the expense of the nation at large. For surely the maintenance of shipping to the end that foreign trade may be developed and to the end that adequate protection may be available, should war befall, would be meeting the universal national need.

Congress should discard petty politics in dealing with this subject and handle it in the straightforward manner that patriotic statemenship urges and national necessity dictates. Let it approach the matter directly and solve it as a clear-cut business proposition—which it is.

Does the nation's best interest urge the expansion of foreign trade? Does national defense require the establishment and maintenance of safeguarding merchant fleets? These two questions answer themselves in the affirmative. The affirmative makes unescapable the conclusion that it is to the nation's best interest to meet commercial and defensive needs in the best way—and the only practical way—that has so far been suggested.

SPRAGUE CONTINUES TO SPRAG WORK OF MOONSHINE SELLERS

Prohibition officers John Quinn and Mike Musin, under the jurisdiction of Group Head Sprage at Punxsutawney, for the week ending November 11, captured seven stills. Some were in operation at the time of seizure and they destroyed 500 gallons of mash and confiscated a large quantity of moonshine.

They also arrested a man who sold moonshine to two boys, aged 15 and 17 years. One of the boys went blind and the other is in a serious condition. The father reported the case the man was arrested and he confessed to the selling and where he secured the liquor. As the result the officers arrested Italian Frank at Rochester Mills within two hours together with thirty gallons of liquor and a still in operation. They also found a loaded revover and two barrels of mash. The two men were jailed.

On Monday, November 6, Officer Quinn seized a truckload of high power beer at Indiana as it was being hauled away from the Indiana brewery to be delivered to hotels and lodges. The beer was taken to the postoffice, stored and samples sent for analysis by a government chemist.

SURPRISE PARTY AT EAST END

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gardner were tendered a pleasant surprise party at their home on Eleventh St. last evening. The time was spent in playing games and dancing. Music was furnished by Sheesley and Rowles. Refreshments were served and all had a most enjoyable time.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE JOHN STONE

The funeral of the late John Stone representative of one of Clearfield County's pioneer families, will be held from the Stoneville church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made at Stoneville.

Mr. and Mrs. James McLaughlin, son Franklin and mother Mrs. Alice McLaughlin and aunt, Mrs. Clara McLaughlin motored to Kane Sunday and spent the day with Harry McLaughlin and family. While crossing the Penfield mountain a fine big deer stepped out in the road and almost scared the wits out of the old man. The party found the ground covered with snow at Kane and even skating for the kids. Mrs. McLaughlin and daughter Mrs. Andy Johnson are spending the day in Philipsburg with Mrs. Charles C. Johnson.

ALLEGED POCKET BOOK LIFTER JAILED

Mary Johnstone, the dusky belle from down East End who is charged by John Hardy, white, with having surreptitiously abstracted from his pocket and removed from his person no less than one hundred and seven "smackers" or good hard "iron men," while she was engaged in protesting her affection fro him, was sent "down the rivevr" by 'Squire Chorponning yesterday afternoon in default of $500 bail.

Mary will be called upon to answer to Hardy's charge at December criminal court and will get her mail at Fort Lowell in the meantime.

"Happy" alleged accomplice of Mary, was allowed to go yesterday but will be arrested on a liquor law violation charge.

VACCINATION IS INDIRECTLY UPHELD BY HIGHEST COURT

Washington, D. C. Nov. 13—Compulsory Vaccination regulations were indirectly upheld by the United States Supreme Court today, when a suit for $10,000 was dismissed.

The suit was entered in the name of Rosalyn Zucht, a San Antonio girl who has been expelled from school following the refusal of her parents to have her vaccinated.

Physicians who have been opposed to compulsory vaccination or vaccination in any form were greatly interested in the case as they claimed that it would establish an interesting precedent.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no ambition. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from the live poisons and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel are gentle in their action yet thorough and sure. They bring about that natural result you want, which all good cathartics do, toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

THANKSGIVING TABLEWARE

THE TEXAS HOSPITAL PLAN

State Department Places Work First on List—Financing the Responsibility of All Units.

"The department of Texas places hospital work first and considers it a privilege to do everything possible in this service," writes Miss Ada Mayo Maddox, secretary of the department of Texas. Her report of the hospital work which has been done in Texas during the past year bears out the statement.

Mrs. Edward C. Murray.

A state hospital fund was instituted May 28, 1921. The first check which came into headquarters was from Santa Anna, a unit on saying that it had not yet received its charter. The Wichita Falls auxiliary, known as "Ma Burdick's unit," was among the first to contribute. Since then approximately $6,500 has been deposited in the hospital fund, four Legion posts having sent in, without solicitation, about $900 of the amount. One post held a goat-eating contest to raise funds and others sent in the receipts of their poppy sales.

The object of the state fund is to make the financing of the hospital work the responsibility of all units, not limited to the ones nearest the hospitals. The State hospital committee, a chairman elected by the state convention and three members from each unit situated near a hospital for ex-service men, handles the money that comes in. The chairman directs the work, instructs her committee, approves statements and vouchers, prepares bulletins and does an enormous amount of work among the boys themselves. Mrs. David M. Duller of Houston served faithfully in that capacity last year, and Mrs. J. Ward McKee, also of Houston, is the active chairman.

The report says: "Mrs. Murray's messages to the units in the hospital bulletins and her vision in the hospital work has inspired the Texas units to accomplish all this. It was her idea, also, that the units adopt patients and break the monotony of days in the hospital wards by writing to them and sending little gifts. Greatest help is given to men without compensation, but men with compensation who need cheering are adopted also."

Mrs. Edward Clinton Murray of Houston is president of the department of Texas, and is also one of the national vice presidents of the American Legion Auxiliary. She was one of the first organizers of the auxiliary in Texas and was elected to the state presidency when the organization was formed in San Antonio in December, 1920. Under her direction many units have been formed whose purpose at present is to establish a unit for each of the 201 Legion posts in Texas. Two of her policies are justice for the disabled soldiers and discouragement of memorials which are not of some living good to the men.

The department of Texas was first to contribute to the national hospital fund.

Thomas S. Bloodworth.

Thomas Stuart Bloodworth disappeared from his home in Natchez, Miss., September 13, and members of the American Legion post, the Herbert J. Remoudet post No. 4, are seeking news concerning him. It is feared he may have met with foul play. Bloodworth is twenty-three years old, 5 feet 6½ inches in height, weighs 140 pounds, is fair complexioned, has dark brown hair and black eyes. When he disappeared he wore an O.D. army shirt and corduroy trousers. He is married and has a nine-months-old child.

Any information concerning him should be sent to W. A. Geisenberger, commander Herbert J. Remoudet post No. 4, Natchez, Miss.

The hotel has rooms, lounge, dancing and entertainment parlors, etc., and furnishes the post with offices a meeting place and entertainment facilities.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Health Officer Weaver handed the writer the following health conditions of the borough, so far as the various contagious diseases are concerned. He reports to date 18 cases of scarlet fever; 18 cases of chicken pox; 1 case diphtheria; 3 cases of mumps and 1 case of typhoid fever. It is almost useless to warn parents to keep a strict watch over sanitary conditions, and, as a rule, many parents never attempt to "lock the stable until the horse is stolen." There are many nooks and corners in this borough which are unsanitary, and there will never be a better opportunity than at present for a general cleanup of all places where rubbish, ashes, etc., have been allowed to accumulate. Parent, watch your step, as the next quarantine card may be tacked on your door.

Miss Maud Costetta and Mrs. Richard Houton, both of Brockwayville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sloppy over Sunday.

Rev. Max Lantz, accompanied by three fellow travelers, from Altoona, arrived in Curwensville yesterday afternoon. The party left Altoona at 8 o'clock a. m. for this point, but had hard luck on the way, having to stop two or three times on account of breakdowns. After an hour in town the party captured John Kelly to use as a guide, and struck out for the mountains where they expect to put in the balance of the week hunting birds and rabbits. The parson would be pleased to take a crack at a bear if one should happen to double-cross him in a rabbit chase.

Ed. Peters, one of the foremen at Crescent brick plant, is able to be on his legs again after a week's fight with a case of lagrippe.

Coach Black of the C. H. S. football squad went to Youngstown, O., Saturday night and played in a Sunday game in that city. Black is rather nifty at the game and his services are always in demand when it comes down to real football.

Mrs. Wash Hess died at Grampian last Friday morning about six o'clock Her age was about 60 years. Her funeral was held on Saturday. Interment was in Friends cemetery.

Mrs. B. F. Farley has gone to Akron, Ohio, for a visit with her son and daughter. After spending some time in that busy city, she will go to Ashland, some sixty miles southeast of Akron, and spend a week or two with Mr. Farley's brother, John Farley and his family. She will be absent about one month.

Mrs. Mary J. Long, wife of the late Philip Long, died at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Charlie Shade West Decatur, Saturday, November 11th, aged 83 years, 7 months and 2? days. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon, interment being made in the Bloomington cemetery She was the mother of William Peoples, of this place. Deceased first husband died some 53 years ago.

Miss Ruth Graham, who has been residing in Portland, Oregon, for several years, has returned to Pennsylvania and is now visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Apgar Bloom, on corner of Thompson and George streets.

Jack Lytle of Clearfield was a visitor in Curwensville yesterday afternoon. He looked around for old land marks and failed to find them. It was the first intimation that he had that the old Draucker House was gone and a building of the past. "My gracious," said he, "how things have changed since I used to make weekly trips to the town."

The members of the American Legion, acting upon a suggestion made by the Progress scribe some few weeks ago in his Curwensville letter went over to Irvin Park the latter part of last week and housed all the moveable property, such as tables benches, sliding board, etc., so that by next season the articles will all be there and can again be put into proper place without much trouble Borough council had been asked several times to have this work but for some reason or other neglected the job. The ex-soldier boys certainly deserve credit for their thoughtfulness.

During the course of our extraordinarily long, useful and eventful life we have heard of white and drab elephants, and now the three story red building is allowed to stand as a red elephant. Thus we learn.

This is Cancer Week throughout the United States, and meetings are being held in almost every town. Curwensville correspondent to Progress was requested yesterday to announce that a meeting would be held in the High School building on Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock at which all middle-aged men are earnestly requested to be present. Dr. Weil, of Pittsburg, and others will be present and address the meeting. Last year 90 000 persons died in the U. S. from cancer, one to about every 10 inhabitants. One peculiarity about this disease is that as a rule it only attacks persons in middle life, and not the young.

An important meeting of the Athletic Association will be held in the High School building Thursday evenng. All members will be duly notified, and those that are interested in the High School football team are invited to attend as plans for the association for next year will be made.

CARS LOCK HORNS

Cliff Cowdrick's automobile and Banks Holmes' baggage wagon locked horns on North Second street this morning. The wagon came out second best in the fray, but nobody was hurt.

A Third Ward young man named Rauch ran his car into one of the Fullington jitney's upon South Second street last evening. The jitney lost a fender and had a couple of windows broken, while the Rauch car was also considerably damaged.

HON. B. F. CHASE LEAVES

Hon Benjamin F. Chase, U. S. Consul at Messina, Italy, left today for Roanoke, Va., where he expects to join his wife and will then go to Washington and return to his position at Messina within the coming two weeks.

It has been Mr. Chase's intention to resign from the Consular service and go into business at Roanoke, but Mrs. Chase, who is not in robust health, could not stand the climate at Roanoke, and Mr. Chase thereupon decided to remain in the Consular service.

WINBURNE

Rev. Benjamin Thomas of the Presbyterian church took as his text Sunday morning, Nov. 12, 1 Timothy 4:13, "Give heed to reading." It was a plea to give more study to the care and feeding of young minds. Primary instruction begins in the home. Much of the world's art story are devoted to children. The pastor dwelt particularly on the necessity of singing beautiful hymns to little children and the making use of the great wealth of Bible stories. The vast influence of the best pictures was also pointed out.

Children's Book Week is receiving attention by the people of Winburne and vicinity. By appointment of the Public Library Committee, a subcommittee consisting of Mrs. Paul J. Baer, assistant principal of the local high school, and Mrs. Benjamin Thomas, has been named to map out a program for a mass meeting of the mothers at the school building in Mr. Greene's room on Tuesday evening, 7:30 o'clock, Nov. 14. The following persons have been designated to speak: Mrs. J. G. Miller, secretary of the Library Committee; Mrs. W. P. Thorpe, Mrs. P. J. Baer, and Rev. Benj. Thomas, chairman of the Library Committee.

Mrs. David Hodge has charge of the music. The speaking and singing will be largely in the nature of a demonstration of what to read and sing to children and especially to tiny children. A quartette consisting of young men will sing and John Wilson will be present with several members of the orchestra. A most cordial invitation is hereby extended to the mothers of Winburne and vicinity to be present Tuesday evening.

SIDELIGHTS ON THE GAME AT BILLTOWN AS SEEN BY "DICK"

By DICK LEIPOLD

If any special coronation were made on the Clearfield squad, it would be unfair. Every lad that "got in" played as though his life depended on the outcome, and barring a couple of ball breaks, the team would have returned home a victor. The backfield, Howe, full; Brown and Hod Johnson halves, and Swede Johnson, quarter, played from whistle to whistle. This combination battered the Williamsport line for consistent gains, and also backed up the line well. Swede Johnson and Hody Johnson outpunted Mahaffey at all stages. Brown's passing was accurate and Howe put up his usual type of hard playing, both on defense and offense.

Then, the Clearfield line, except for one weakening in the second quarter when the down-river team broke up a Clearfield punt, showed an unusual amount of strength. Clearfield took the ball on downs more times than their opponents. Ken Barney and Bob Wilson, two 140 pound Sophomores, were fast in getting down the field under punts, and smashed most of the enemy's end runs.

Moore and Pierce at tackles played as all high school forwards would like to. They toiled unheralded from start to finish and will go down as two of the best tackles produced at the local school in years.

Betts and Ganoe started the game at guard, but injuries forced both men out. First it was Burly Betts, then "Bull" Ganoe. The loss of each was a blow to C. H. S., although Maines and Tiny Witherow played bang-up games when injected into the fray. Few teams possess a quartet of such reliable guards.

Capt. Witherow played his customary steady game at center, and also made good when called on to play safety man.

End Heintel, last year's captain, Tackle Schuster, 190-pound captain this fall, and Guard Bittle, formed a strong trio on the left side of Williamsport's line. Schuster's brother played for Penn State until a week ago, when declared ineligible.

Quarterback Mahaffey was the brains of the enemy's attack. His judgment was uncanny in passing. Sheriff and Good were also heavy tollers.

As the two final games on Clearfield high's schedule draw near, much interest is being aroused over the outcome of DuBois and Curwensville High's week-end clashes with other squads. These two teams appear on Clearfield's gridiron for consecutive games, the DuBois gridders invading Clearfield on the 25 inst., while the Curwensville squad will come down-river to play the Thanksgiving Day game on the [illegible] of November.

Both Teams Going Strong.

Curwensville and DuBois seem to be about on a par if the DuBois-Curwensville game's score of 14 to 7 in favor of the former tells anything. Last S[illegible] Curwensville High humbled [illegible] Bellefonte Hi, 25 to 0. [illegible] over Tyrone at Tyrons two weeks ago by a point, 8 to 7. DuBois High showed the way to Tyrone's squad, handing the main liners a 41 to 0 setback.

The fact that both machines scored easily, and yet kept their own goal line uncrossed, proves that all around development has been taking hold of these two Clearfield county squads. Coach Black of Curwensville and Coach Eddie Treadwell of DuBois are frank in admitting that they have been pointing for their clashes with the county seat school, so some stirring football is ahead for the local fans.

The private wire from the Williamsport football field to Clearfield was a great success. Play by play the local team's followers were told of the happenings down at the Lycoming county seat via a Magna Vox operated by Walt Flegal in Senator Betts' office in the Keystone Building. Down in Williamsport the city fans were impressed by Clearfield High's student interest in securing a leased line for such a lengthy talk.

Williamsport's coach is reported the "Sun" as stating that the Red and Black was the strongest all around eleven to play in Williamsport this season, and some tough teams have trotted out to oppose the Cherry and White. Clearfield scored more points than the combined scores of all the other varsity opponents.

Capt. Carl Mann's scrubs journeyed to Winburne, last Saturday and were given a 39 to 0 jolt by Cooper Township High. The local second stringers say that the smallest man on the township machine was a second "Tiny" Witherow, with the big fellows of the team outweighing Don (Fat) Thurston of the Clearfield Reserves.

It seems the township management advertised the game as "Clearfield High School" and many rural sport fans are crowing over their favorites' victory over Clearfield's varsity.

Wholesome Retribution.

"I hear they are going to close up the saloons in Crimson Gulch," "Yes," exclaimed Tarantula Tim. "The licker has been gettin' poorer every year an' us citizens is willin' to go without fur awhile fur the sake of punishin' the bartenders."

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

No man or woman who eats lots of meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Too much meat may form uric acid, which clogs the kidney pores so that they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood; then you get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleep lessness, bladder disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to help neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus often ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink, which everyone can take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby often preventing serious kidney complications.

The Formula for Eggs

Conkey's Buttermilk Laying Mash for eggs and Conkey's Scratch Grains for body maintenance and exercise—that is the Conkey way of feeding. Hens prefer scratch grains to mash if given a choice, but it is the mash and not the grains that makes the eggs. Arrange to feed so the hens will consume twice as much mash as grain by measure.

Conkey's
The Original
Buttermilk Laying Mash

Balanced egg-making ration just right in animal protein (needed for eggs) and low in fibre (indigestible waste matter). No mill sweepings, shell, alfalfa, ground hay or trashy filler. All nutritious feed—clean and sweet.

Conkey's contains wholesome meat scraps, granulated bone, grains ground to proper fineness, and fresh concentrated buttermilk. We use Semi-Solid Buttermilk only. Mixed with exacting care and scientific accuracy, it gets remarkable results in a perfectly natural way, without ruinous artificial stimulation. It is Nature's balanced egg-maker.

Insist on Conkey's—in Original Packages

For best results, feed all three Conkey Buttermilk Feeds—one each for Starting, Growing and Laying. Don't break the Chain of Conkey's Original Buttermilk Feeds. Ask for Conkey's and always get in Original Packages. (21) Big Poultry Book Free. Ask for it.

When the purchases are made for this store, there is always one thing that is asked above the other—"how good is it?" It isn't a matter of beating down the traveling salesman's price, but an insistence on the highest possible quality we can procure.

And yet, prices here are no higher than elsewhere.
